Pannett Art Gallery Curator's Report July 2023

Soper Collection

We have been monitoring the new storage spaces created to hold the collection and are now confident that the environmental conditions are appropriate for our artworks. Work has started to relocate the artworks from the Weatherill Gallery.

As agreed, we have re-hung one wall of the Weatherill Gallery with Soper artworks and are looking to reorganise the remaining walls to ensure watercolour paintings are properly rested.

The website has been updated, with a new section added to introduce our audience to the Soper Collection.

Museums Development Yorkshire are paying for three days of Dieter Hopkins's time, to support me with the development of a work programme and action plan to help us get a fuller understanding of this collection, and the opportunities it brings. This work will strengthen future funding bids.

Workshops and Events

Esk Estuary Event

I attended the Esk Estuary event at the Mission to Seamen, with a stall promoting our collections, focusing on paintings of the River Esk and harbour. This extremely well attended event provided a great opportunity to chat to visitors about our artworks, raising the profile of the gallery and the collection and networking with other community organisations in Whitby.

Art UK Wild Escape

With Funding from Art UK we delivered a programme of craft, and creative writing workshops for families, focussing on the birds in the Soper Collection.

Through art, craft and creative writing sessions, participants were able to make strong connections between the collection and the garden birds they may see in our park or in the garden. We delivered three school workshops, including a visit to the gallery, seven family activities in the gallery, and a day of activities for Earth Day, including a display of work created, nature workshop, and a natural history talk.

Through this project participants learnt about the bird paintings and ceramics in the Pannett Art Gallery collection. They also learnt about local native birds and their habitat, including how to identify different species, where they can be seen locally, what they eat, and their size and weight, and scale of population, as well as what they can do to encourage these species, and how to protect them.

Four visitor-led activities about birds were created for the gallery, which we can use as an ongoing resource. We worked with the Friends of Pannett Park to produce a trail around the park to create direct connections between the birds in our collection, and those outside in the park, and produced a similar trail around the gallery to encourage visitors to view the artwork differently.

In total, 583 people took part in these activities. This was part of a national project, and our activities were promoted to families across the country.

March Maths Month

With the National Literacy Trust we once again hosted a highly successful storytelling session in the gallery. Promoted primarily to local primary schools we attracted a mostly local audience. All children attending enjoyed the story telling and were able to choose a free book from a wide selection of age-appropriate stories. 46 children attended, accompanied by 24 adults.

Fish and Ships Festival

Building on the success of Wild Escape we delivered two full days of creative activities for families raising awareness of the Endangered Herring Gull.

58 children participated in this event which included a mini pop-up exhibition about the birds, questions inviting closer study of two original prints, a 'have your say' board, a craft activity and a chance to add to the cliff diorama display.

Yorkshire Fossil Festival

An extremely large and diverse audience attended the Yorkshire Fossil Festival, which this year took place across the whole of the art gallery, museum and into the park. This fascinating event attracted hundreds of people who would not otherwise have visited the gallery.

Stalls and workshops took place in the gallery and an evening event included close up illusionists in the Staithe's Gallery.

Big Green Week

As part of this year's national Big Green Week I organised a display in the gallery and made activities exploring wildlife, natural habitats, and the environment available for visitors to enjoy.

Work Placement

An MA Student from Aberdeen University applied to work with Pannett Art Gallery for a short period of research. During her fortnight of study in Whitby she created a timeline for the Soper Collection, identifying key moments in the lives of each family member and putting these into context by including local, national and international events.

2023 Exhibitions

Exploring the Pannett Paintings, February 4th –May 7th

This was the first time we displayed works from the Soper Collection. I used a questionnaire to gather opinions about this display and to learn about which themes people would be interested in seeing more of. The exhibition was extremely well received, with visitors wanting to know more about these reclusive artists.

Whitby Art Society. 'Still Life to Save Lives', May 8th – June 15th

A charity selling exhibition in aid of the Air Ambulance. Eleven paintings sold, and the Art Society ran an art tombola in the gallery throughout the exhibition, raising funds for the charity.

Caedmon College Whitby, June 17th – 21st

A vibrant exhibition of artwork from Whitby Sixth Form and GCSE students.

The Natural World - The Artwork of George, Eileen, and Eva Soper, June 24th – September 17th

Currently on display is a diverse display of artworks by these three artists.

This exhibition has been featured twice in the Country Life magazine

Remaining 2023 Exhibitions

Whitby Art Society - Annual Exhibition, October 31st – Christmas Closing

Mr George Bednar has recently donated four framed etchings by George Soper. Mrs Joy Baker has sent us a further three unframed etchings of Whitby, also by George Soper.
