6. MARITIME HUB

The following motion has been submitted:

Proposer Cllr Layman

Seconder Cllr S Smith

Motion:

"I move that, under a recorded vote, in light of the public opposition to, the lack of commercial interest in, and North Yorkshire Council's continued inability to provide a viable business plan for, the proposed Maritime Hub, Whitby Town Council withdraws its support for this project. Although in full support of improved training and job opportunities for Whitby, and in particular those that offer economic diversification, the Council urge North Yorkshire Council to seek a more practical and less divisive location".

A supporting document from the proposers of the motion is attached.
